RE: Wells Technology, Inc.

To Whom It May Concern:

Wells Technology, Inc. has been doing business with Security Bank^{USA} since 1985. We have watched this corporation grow and prosper, using profits to fund the growth. We have occasionally provided financing in the form of term debt for equipment purchases as well as a revolving line of credit, but not for several years now.

Wells Technology, Inc. is a valued customer of Security Bank^{USA}. They have never had an overdraft, returned check or late payment.

Wells Technology, Inc. is known in the community for their strength, integrity and core values. Security Bank^{USA} is pleased to be a business partner with Wells Technology, Inc.
